

Complete and Incomplete Sentence Review

Study tonight for your Quiz tomorrow!

See the Weebly for resources.

How can I tell if a sentence is complete?

Use The Four Step Formula!

1. Identify the verb (simple predicate).
2. Identify the do-er (simple subject).
3. Ask yourself, is it a complete thought? Is there essential information missing?
4. Is it a sentence? Yes or No

1. Identify the verb (simple predicate).

- The verb is the action!

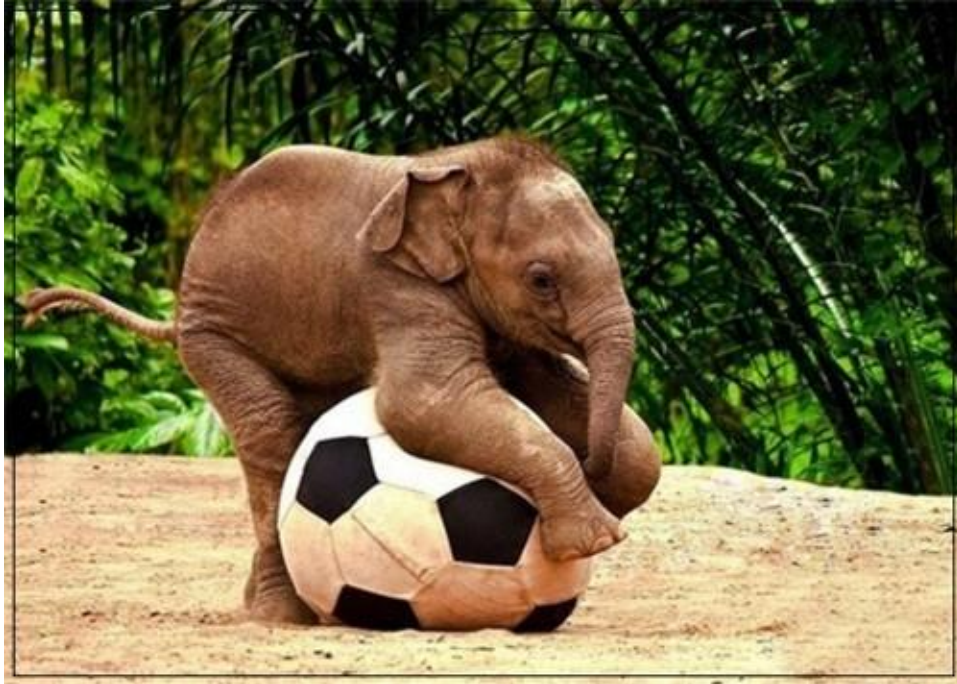

What is our simple predicate in the following sentences?

Tricky verbs: is, was, are, were. States of being are verbs!

2. Identify the do-er (simple subject).

- The subject is the person, place, or thing (noun) that the sentence is about.
- This is the do-er. Who or what is doing the action?

Identify the predicate!

The baby elephant practiced his soccer skills.

Identify the subject!

Identify the predicate!

The double rainbows brightened the stormy, grey sky.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

Albert and Ernest enjoyed their Halloween costumes.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

Because they were waiting for treats.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

Looking even more sad than usual.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

My basset hounds have big personalities, they also have large ears.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

Trotted around the house to show off their costumes.

Is the sentence complete or incomplete?

The sound basset hounds make when they howl.

Albert, Ernest, and Miss Lehman would like you to study tonight!

Use the quizzes on the Weebly and study your notes and Bell Ringers from class!

* I have added more to help you identify incomplete sentences!

Fall Paragraph

- I can't wait to experience all of the treats that Fall brings! One of my favorite treats is apple cider. Because it tastes both sweet and tart. Apples in general are one of my favorite things about this season. The other seasonal flavor that I enjoy is pumpkin, it is delicious with anything! Nothing like starting the morning with pumpkin flavored coffee. While I look at the falling, vibrant leaves, I can enjoy some of my favorite treats.

Fall Paragraph

- I can't wait to experience all of the treats that Fall brings! One of my favorite treats is apple cider, because it tastes both sweet and tart. Apples in general are one of my favorite things about this season. The other seasonal flavor that I enjoy is pumpkin! It is delicious with anything. There's nothing like starting the morning with pumpkin flavored coffee. While I look at the falling, vibrant leaves, I can enjoy some of my favorite treats.